Psalm 139

C: LORD, YOU have searched me out and known me : you know my sitting down and my rising up, you discern my thoughts from a-far.

P: You trace my journeys and my resting plac-es : and are acquainted with all my ways.

C: Indeed there is not a word on my lips : but you O Lord know it al-to-geth-er.

P: You press upon me behind and be-fore : and lay your hand u-pon me.

C: Such knowledge is too wonderful for me : it is so high that I can-not at-tain it.

P: For you yourself created my in-most parts : you knit me together in my mó-ther's womb.

C: I will thank you because I am marvellously made : your works are wonderful and I know it well.

P: My body was not hidden from you : while I was being made in secret and woven in the depths of the earth.

C: Your eyes beheld my limbs yet unfinished in the womb; all of them were written in your book : they were fashioned day by day when as yet there was none of them.

P: How deep I find your thoughts O God : how great is the sum of them!

C: If I were to count them they would be more in number than the sand

P: To count them all, my life span would need to be like yours.
