

Tree and other Christmas decorations? That would help make the hall look festive, and also give everyone something that they join in. We are working on music for the evening. Some have been asking if kids/youth are welcome. The answer is yes, most certainly. The more the better. Kids/youth like to hang out together. And a multi-generational presence does pick up the mood. And when we get busy there's no shortage of things to do.

- The Native Women's Transitional House is a program for single women (16 to 24 years) and children (newborn to 6 years) who need a safe and supportive environment. The program provides on-site support to women striving to improve the quality of their life. Parishioners are invited to donate wrapped Christmas gifts for adults and children which will be delivered to the home on Boxing Day. Please indicate the gift and the age for which a child's gift is appropriate. Items such as cosmetics, stockings, scarves, etc. which will help build self-esteem in the women, will also be appreciated. Boxes will available at the back of the church on Sunday, 11 December until Sunday, 18 December, to receive the gifts. Thank you.

SPIRITUAL GROWTH for CHILDREN:

- Sunday School during the 9:30 mass: The program focuses on the nativity through the eyes of Joseph and includes many dreams, the birth of Jesus, the visit of the Magi, the flight into Egypt and the experience of refugees. We plan to create some gifts for the family of Iraqi refugees we are sponsoring, as well as another large freize. There is a Folk Mass on Christmas Day (10 am). We take a break on 1 January , and reconvene on 8 January, until the beginning of Lent on 26 February. Newcomers welcome!

SPIRITUAL GROWTH for ADULTS:

- Wednesday Bible Study: The Wednesday morning Bible study continues. We meet from 11.00 pm to noon, following the 10.00 mass. OUTREACH & SOCIAL JUSTICE:

- Hands Across the Sands: The refugee team met and chose to sponsor a family of four, currently living in a refugee camp in Lebanon. The family is composed of a husband, wife and two adult children. The family fled Iraq, and they are recognized refugees due to persecution on the basis of their ethnicity and faith, which is Chaldean Christianity. Although we can’t be certain, at present our best guess is that the family will arrive in early January. Our plan is to look now for interim accommodation of two or three weeks, beginning with their arrival. THIS IS A MOST PRESSING NEED. Any suggestions for short term housing would be most welcome. PLEASE SEE INSERT for a list of furniture and household items you can donate. (Please speak to Richard, Wendy, Catherine, Sally-Beth or Fr. Paul.). We feel both excited and privileged to have taken this step. There will be many challenges ahead. In the meantime, we can make our preparations for the family’s arrival and pray for their safety and journey.
- O’Neill Centre Nursing Home: Our Ministry at the O’Neill Centre Nursing Home continues Tuesday, 10 January at 2.30 pm. Please consider joining this ministry of sacrament and presence. For more information, speak with Fr David or Fr William.
- Community Dinner: Our next Community Dinner will be on THIS WEEK on Friday, 23 December. Friday 30 December is a fifth Friday, so there is no assigned team for that week. St. T’s has asked that everyone who can to please pitch in. As for the 23rd, it would be really nice if we could something special. Might anyone have an artificial Christmas tree they could donate?
