Celebrant: Holy God, we beg for your Spirit. Enliven this bread, awaken this body, pour us out for each other. Transfigure our minds, ignite your Church, nourish the life of the earth. Make us, while many, united. Make us, though broken, whole. Make us, despite death, alive. And so we cry, Come Holy Spirit:

People: Come Holy Spirit!

Celebrant: And so the earth pleads, Come Holy Spirit:

For-give us our sins, as we for-give those who sin a-gainst us. Save us from the time of trial, now and for-ev-er. A-men.

Celebrant: Holy God, Holy One, Holy Three! You beyond the galaxies, you under the oceans, you inside the leaves, you pouring down rain, you opening flowers, you feeding insects, you giving us your image, you carrying us through waters, you holding us in the night, your smile on Sarah and Abraham, your hand with Moses and Miriam, your words through Deborah and Isaiah, you lived as Jesus among us, healing, dying, rising, inviting us all to your feast.

In the night in which he was betrayed, Jesus took bread, and gave thanks; broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying: Take, eat; this is my body, given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.

Again after supper, he took the cup, gave thanks, and gave it to all to drink, saying: This cup is the new covenant in my blood, shed for you and for all people for the forgiveness of sins. Do this for the remembrance of me.

Holy God, we remember your Son, his life with the humble, his death among the wretched, his resurrection for us all: your wisdom our guide, your justice our strength, your grace our path to rebirth. And so we cry, Mercy:

People: Mercy!

Celebrant: And so we cry, Glory:

People: Glory!
