Psalm 145 ..... BCP p. 516

Lessons: Judges 16: 15 – 31; John 5: 30 – 47

All life belongs to God. The Christian faith believes that God uses ordinary material things as vehicles for God's spiritual grace and divine life, as in the sacraments. Our religion is incarnational through and through.

William Temple, the great Archbishop of Canterbury, referring to this quality of the Christian faith said, "Christianity is the most materialistic of the great religions." We declare that we believe in the resurrection of the body and not in the immortality of the soul. The body, according to St Paul, is the temple of the Holy Spirit. Christians are not dualists who believe that matter is intrinsically evil, and therefore all God's created universe, material and spiritual, counts for us. The whole of life is important, political, economic and social, and none of these aspects is untouched by religion as we understand it. – Archbishop Desmond Tutu

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Church of St Mary Magdalene, Toronto Sunday, 19 August 2007

Visitors are warmly welcomed and are invited to enjoy refreshments with us after the 9.30 or 11 o'clock Mass.

- Fr Harold is taking his annual holiday this month. He returns 1 September.
- Brin Conard, the parish Administrative Assistant, is currently away from the office and will return 28 August.
- Fr Moss will be leaving the parish at the end of the summer. We will bid him farewell on Holy Cross Day, 14 September, and wish him well as he moves into the role of Rector at the Church of the Messiah.
- This summer at the Solemn Mass our Director of Music, Prof. Martin, has decided to continue the participation of the Gallery Choir, on a voluntary basis, throughout the summer. The Sanctus, however, is set to plainsong which the congregation can join in singing using the music provided on the cream-coloured insert.
- Please remember if you are on your annual holiday this summer that it should not be a holiday from worship. It is a great witness to the Faith, and to the local faithful, when we seek out on Sunday the Christian community wherever we are and worship with them, always trying to celebrate the Eucharist if at all possible. Parishioners are also reminded that the Wardens and the Treasurer would appreciate your keeping your pledges up-to-date, as the bills keep coming in during the summer holidays. It is less worrisome for them when there is enough money in the bank to pay the bills.HJN+
- The parish's Thrift Shop is closed until further notice. Please do not bring in any more clothing for the shop at this time. It is hoped that in September the parish will have an opportunity to consider the future role of the Thrift Shop, if any. If there is anyone who is interested in this ministry, please speak to Fr Harold or one of the Wardens.
- The Second Century Renewal Fund continues in its efforts to raise funds for improvements to the church building and grounds in accord with the decision of the Special Vestry. We hope that we can finish this project in 2008 when we celebrate the centenary of the completion of this building. It is hoped that every parishioner will make a three-year pledge for a substantial amount, in accordance with your means, to support this necessary work. If we all do our share then we can reach our goal with ease.

- St Andrew's Settlement, Kingston, Jamaica, has sent thanks for the recent donation from the Rector's Discretionary Fund to pay for a water pump to provide an adequate water supply to the medical clinic. Thanks are extended for the donation that made this possible. HJN+
- Pink parking cards are available at the back of the church to place on the dashboard of your car when you are at Mass. These cards remind officers to give consideration to people at worship. However, illegal parking is not allowed and there are no guarantees. If you receive a ticket while at Mass, please show it to a Warden.
- Fair Trade coffee is still available at a cost of $12 per pound, either ground or as whole beans. Please contact Eva Martin at (416) 923-9333.
- STRATFORD TRIP: Tickets and transportation have been booked for Saturday, 8 September, leaving SMM at 9.15am and returning by 8.00pm. The play is The Merchant of Venice starring Graham Greene as Shylock. Tickets may be purchased for $99.00 (in advance). Forms are available at the back of the church.
