As many of you know, the decennial meeting of the bishops of the world-wide Anglican Communion, the Lambeth Conference, convenes in July this year. The following prayer is suggested for inclusion in your personal prayers. Given our present divisions, God's help and guidance is truly needed.

Lambeth 2008 Prayer

Pour down upon our bishop, O God, the gifts of your Holy Spirit, that those who participate in the Lambeth Conference may be filled with wisdom and understanding. May they know at work within them that creative energy and vision which belong to our humanity, made in your image and redeemed by your love. Through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Psalm 103BCP p. 460

Lessons: I Samuel 23: 7-18; Mark 2: 1-12

Our Lord showed me our Lady, Saint Mary, to teach us this: that it was the wisdom and truth in her, when she beheld her maker, that enabled her to know him as so great, so holy, so mighty, and so good. His greatness and his nobleness overwhelmed her. She saw herself so little and low, so simple and poor compared with God that she was filled with humility. And so from this humble state she was lifted up to grace and all manner of virtues, and stands above all. This above all causes the soul to seem small in its own sight: to see and love its maker. And this is what fills it with reverence and humility, and with generous love to our fellow-Christians. The seeking, with faith, hope and love, pleases our Lord, and the finding pleases the soul and fills it with joy.

– Julian of Norwich
