Psalms 113, 114BCP p. 479

Lessons: Isaiah 51: 9 – 11; Luke 24: 13 – 35

We do not know what happened when Jesus Christ rose from the dead; that is God's secret. We do not know, that is, what happened to him, what change he underwent, what it was like for him to rise. We know some of the things that happened to his disciples, what he caused them to see, to touch and to hear. Through the signs of his presence which he bestowed, he made them understand at least this about himself: the whole Jesus who had lived with them before his passion was again alive, and with them again; nothing had been lost where everything had been glorified. We break the bread on the altar for the death of Christ, but presently we mingle wine and bread to figure the coming together again of flesh and blood in the wholeness of Christ's resurrection. And then we take to ourselves the words he spoke to the Twelve in the upper room: The peace of the Lord be always with you. – Austin Farrer

ANNOUNCEMENTS
Church of St Mary Magdalene, Toronto
Sunday, 8 April 2007

Visitors are warmly welcomed and are invited to enjoy refreshments with us after the 11 o'clock Mass downstairs in Hiscocks Hall.

- The new issue of the Angelus has recently been published and is available at the back of the church. Be sure to pick up a copy.
- Next Sunday, 15 April, the Sacrament of Anointing for healing of the sick will be available in St Joseph's chapel following each Mass after the greeting of the people.
- Solemn Evensong & Benediction will be sung next Sunday, 15 April at 4.30pm. All are welcome to join in worship.
- Next Sunday at 4.30pm at St James' Cathedral, Bishop Johnson will be celebrating the Diocesan Confirmation. Four of our young parishioners will be confirmed: Robert and Kathleen Godfrey and William and Hannah Gillespie.
- Last Sunday, after the 9.30 or 11.00am service, a late donation envelope was handed to one of the Wardens. It was deposited for safekeeping in a church office, but has since disappeared. If you have any knowledge of who provided this envelope to the Church, please speak with one of the Wardens. We are without the envelope, the contents, and thus the source of this generosity.
- I was in Jamaica recently visiting Mico University which grants degrees in a number of fields, including education. The Acting Principal, Dr Burnett Burton, was a student of mine 44 years ago. He mentioned that the young female students devoured romantic novels like Harlequins, and this improves their reading skills. There is also a need for children's books for ages 4 - 7. Before sending the books in the Long Room to Jamaica, we would be glad to receive, quickly, any such books that you might wish to part with.

- STRATFORD TRIP: Tickets and transportation have been booked for Saturday, 8 September, leaving SMM at 9.15am and returning by 8.00pm. The play is The Merchant of Venice starring Graham Greene as Shylock. Tickets may be purchased for $99.00 (in advance). Call Eva Martin at (416) 923-9333.

- This is the FaithWorks season at SMM. FaithWorks is a diocesan-wide fundraising effort to support designated social service charities that have a connection with the Anglican Church. Every Anglican in the Diocese of Toronto is being asked for a donation to support the work of these agencies to help the needy of this diocese and even worldwide, since the Primate's World Relief and Development Fund is given grants from this fund. Fifteen percent of the proceeds from each parish is retained by the parish to fund the parish's efforts in social service ministry. We hope that you will consider carefully and prayerfully your gift to the appeal and mark your envelopes accordingly, or use a pew envelope.

- Our parish of St Mary Magdalene plans to continue its ministry here for years to come. To do that we must have, among other things, sufficient financial means. One of the main ways the church through the ages has been enabled to do its work has been through the thoughtfulness of parishioners and friends who have had the foresight to bequeath property, securities, or money to the church.

Your planning now can help ensure the future of the parish's work and worship. People of even modest financial means find it possible through their wills to give significant aid to the church. Please give this serious consideration when making your will.
HJN+

- When considering your financial support of the parish, please consider today's accepted minimum standard of one dollar per week for every $1000.00 of annual household income. For example, if the annual income of your household is $50 000, after taxes, your weekly contribution to the maintenance of the parish would be $50. But please remember that we give as we are able and we offer to God a sacrifice in accordance with our means.
