Psalm 78: 1-7 Tone I.4

C: HEAR MY teaching O my peo-ple : incline your ears to the words of my mouth.

P: I will open my mouth in a par-a-ble : I will declare the mýsteries of an-cient times.

C: That which we have heard and known, and what our forefathers have told us : we will not hide from their chil-dren.

P: We will recount to generations to come, the praiseworthy deeds and the power of the Lord : and the wonderful works he has done.

C: He gave his decrees to Jacob and established a law for Is-ra-el : which he commanded them to teach their chil-dren;

P: That the generations to come might know, and the children yet un-born : that they in their turn might tell it to their chil-dren;

C: So that they might put their trust in God :

P: and not forget the deeds of God, but keep his com-mand-ments.

Those who wish to say the Rosary together are invited to meet at the Shrine of Our Lady after coffee about 10 minutes after Mass.

This afternoon at 4.30pm Solemn Evensong and Benediction will be celebrated in Hiscocks Hall. All are welcome to join in worship.

Although our Lord God is with us and dwells in us, holding and enfolding us in tender love, never to leave us; and although he is nearer to us than tongue can tell or heart can think -- even so we shall never cease from sighs nor tears, nor yet from yearning, till we come to see clearly his most blessed face. In that lovely sight no grief can live, no blessing fail.

Were we to be in all the pain that heart can think and tongue can tell, if at that time we could see his fair and blessed face, then all this pain could not grieve us.

This blessed sight is the end of all pain to the loving soul, and brings to fulfilment all joy and delight.

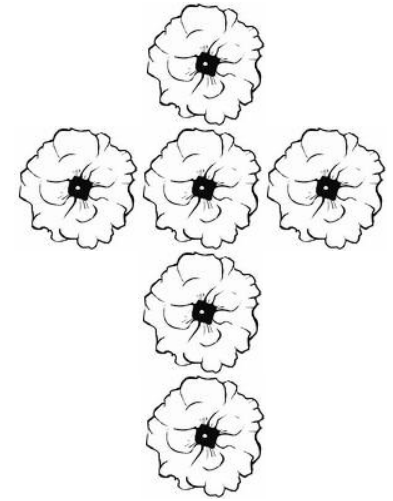

He wants us to know that he will come suddenly and joyfully to all who love him.
— Julian of Norwich

Our thanks to Michael Capon, organist of Glenview Presbyterian Church, for playing the organ at tonight's evensong.

Evening Prayer or Evensong is one of the two official offices or liturgies of prayer and praise in the Anglican Church. This is purely an offering of our worship to Almighty God in thanksgiving for all that God has done for the human race. Added to this 'office' is Benediction, an extension of Jesus Christ's sacramental presence among us in worship, and which ends with Christ's sacramental blessing through the consecrated bread of the Eucharist.
